

Closing The Gender Tech Gap

girlcode.

The Why...

72%
'Bro Culture'

women in tech report experiencing a "bro culture" at work

35%
Women in Tech

Women currently represent only 35% of the global tech workforce, highlighting the persistent gender gap

50%
Leaving the Industry

women in tech have left the industry by age 35, highlighting persistent retention challenges

8%
CTO's

Female representation in leadership is especially low—only 8% of CTOs are women, and the Big Five tech companies have never had a female CEO

We are GirlCode

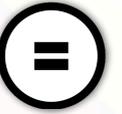

Looking to Attract More Diverse Talent? Partner with GirlCode!

If you're a tech company seeking to build a more diverse workforce, consider partnering with GirlCode—a global online community of women in tech on a mission to close the gender gap in the industry.

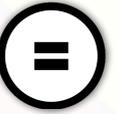

As an official company partner, you'll gain access to a talented, diverse pool of women who are passionate about technology and eager for career opportunities. Our members come from a wide range of backgrounds and experiences, and we believe that diversity is key to driving innovation and success in tech.

GirlCode provides its members with valuable tools and resources, including mentorship programs, job boards, online courses, and networking events. By partnering with us, you'll not only connect with top female talent but also demonstrate your company's commitment to diversity and inclusion. A more diverse team leads to better innovation, broader perspectives, and stronger connections with a diverse customer base.

Together, we can create a more inclusive and equitable tech industry. If you're ready to attract exceptional talent and champion diversity in tech, we'd love to have you as an official GirlCode company partner!

GirlCode Events

With over 100,000 members from around the world, we are committed to creating opportunities for women in tech to connect, network, and advance their careers.

As a tech company, we understand that you are always on the lookout for talented individuals to join your teams. That's why we would like to invite you to get involved with our virtual, hybrid, and in-person events, where you can connect with our community members and discover talented individuals who are passionate about technology and innovation. Our events provide a platform for women in tech to showcase their skills and experiences, network with other professionals, and learn from industry experts.

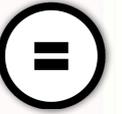

By partnering with us, you'll have the opportunity to meet our members and learn more about their backgrounds, experiences, and career aspirations.

So, if you're looking for talented individuals to join your teams, we encourage you to get involved with our community events. We're excited to work with you and help you find the perfect candidate for your company!

Feel free to watch recording of previous events we have held with our company partners which can be found on the community pages of our website!
